Part III REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach, disclose, or suggest the claimed limitations of (in combination with all other limitations in the claim), a method for submitting a document in electronic form from a computer to a service bureau for printing comprising receiving a print command input to the computer for printing at the service bureau a document stored in a memory accessible to the computer wherein the print command includes user instructions; routing the document over the Internet from the computer to the service or an intermediary for printing by automatically activating a communications program in the computer upon selection of a print command, and transmitting the document from the computer to a server associated with the bureau or intermediary for printing; storing user selected individualized instructions in the memory accessible by the computer and providing the stored user selected instructions upon a subsequent selection of a displayed printer routing option as claimed in claim 1. Similar features are claimed in claims 12, 18, and 26. Therefore, claims 12, 18, and 26 are allowable for the same reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
